A WORD OF CAUTION

Incinerators should be tight, with a close mesh screen cover, and be on clean ground. Let us try for a better record this year. If the public is careful and cooperative the record will show it

YOU CAN HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Twenty-five percent of all forest fires in New Hampshire are caused from careless debris burning—brush, paper, leaves, grass, etc. Most of them are started without the required permit from the local forest fire warden. The cost of extinguishing these fires annually runs into large sums of money.

According to law, responsible parties must pay the cost of putting them out. In addition, violators may be subject to court prosecution with fines running as high as ($200) two hundred dollars.

In the interest of fire prevention why not eliminate burning at home? Use your town dump. It has been set up for your personal convenience. It provides a suitable place for the disposal of dangerous inflammable waste material and other useless items which accumulate around the home and local stores; brush, etc. cut on your property. Eliminate the hazard of burning yourself. It will be easier for you—personally and financially.

If, however, you do burn on your premises:

1. Secure a permit from your local forest fire warden—the law requires it.

2. Be sure to properly supervise your burning. Don't leave it.
3. Make certain your fire is DEAD OUT before leaving it

Save yourself much possible difficulty.

Use your town dump.

Circulation 3002

ELEANOR H. STABY
Librarian

The Trustees call attention to the very substantial increase in circulation from 1299 in 1957 to 3002 in 1958.

On a per capita basis the increase in circulation is from 1.1 to 2.5 showing a gratifying interest in reading.

To a large extent this added interest can be attributed to the consolidation of Auburn Schools that for the first time has brought all Auburn School Children in direct contact with the library.

The cooperation and keen interest of the teachers contributed materially to the added library use.

Regularly scheduled calls of the Bookmobile from the State Library supplements a source of reading material that challenges the adventurous spirit of our children and satisfies the more mature needs of the adults.

The generosity and thoughtfulness of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Auburn Volunteer Fire Department brought about a partial rehabilitation of the Museum and this plus volunteer labor has made the museum a place of cultural interest frequented by all age levels.

The additional appropriation requested in the budget will be used for much needed redecoration of the library interior.

The Trustees thank all who have made 1958 a successful year for the Griffin Free Library and Museum.

REPORT OF THE HELPING TEACHER

The activities of the helping teacher have been discussed in the last three school reports. The general aim and the functions of the position have not changed. As in the past, most of the school day is spent visiting classrooms. A recent month is typical with approximately 100 visits to classrooms, 6 individual tests for pupils, 3 demonstration lessons, and 4 other occasions for participating in classroom teaching. These visits should lead to a better study of pupil needs and teacher requirements, a more co-ordinated program, changes in lesson presentations, and a strengthening of the program. An arithmetic workshop was held for the elementary school teachers in the union. This was conducted by representatives and consultants of the company producing the new text used in our schools. This was followed by observations of lessons and pupil work with the intent of improving the arithmetic program. The teachers are using some different approaches to help pupils to understand the various processes, but there is no lowering of standards. Pupils must still apply themselves and it is still necessary to learn the basic facts of the fundamental processes. However, it appears to be more and more difficult to arouse some pupils to point of mastery of these facts.

Assistance to teachers with curriculum problems has been given in several ways. Talking with teachers individually and issuing duplicated material for teachers in general are the most common methods. Efforts are constantly being made to strengthen various aspects of the curriculum and it will be necessary to continue these efforts. However, the standardized tests given each year have shown that our results compare favorably with the national mediums. A study of the test results and class observations did show that additional work in geography was needed by many pupils. Suggestions have been made to the teachers and some of them are now in the process of reviewing sections of a guide to be compiled by the helping teacher in hopes of improving the work in this subject. The language arts area is always one of concern even though the reading and penmanship phases are going well. We are concerned with spelling and written work. Efforts are being made to have the objectives and responsibilities more clearly defined in each grade.

There is a need to make better provisions for the wide range of abilities found in every class. One would probably find a number of pupils in the union who would profit from a small class under the direction of a person interested and trained in the teaching of pupils having specific learning disabilities. There are also those youngsters who should not be kept at an average learning pace because of their exceptional ability. Federal grants which have been made to the states during the year may help this situation in making it possible to have more visual aids, science equipment, references, etc. Teachers and administrators are conscious of the needs of these youngsters with varying abilities and they are making an effort to provide for these differences. Supplementary books, demonstration materials, equipment for experiments, and other visual aids such as maps, globes, films, and filmstrips play an important part in meeting these various needs. I hope that it will be possible to continue to add to those materials already in the schools and perhaps the time will come when it will be possible to provide added services, in the form of trained personnel, for those with learning disabilities and those with exceptional abilities.

E. RUSSELL RAYMOND

Enrollments

Elementary enrollment continues to increase. The total enrollment as of January 15, 1959 was 243. This is an increase of 14 pupils or approximately 6%. This increase is not transient in nature for the actual enrollment January 15 was 237, an increase of 18 over the 219 reported last year. The enrollment in grades 1 – 4 of 128 would indicate that 250 pupils will be a reality in the near future. The wisdom of adding to the building is indeed borne out by these enrollment figures.

The high school enrollment continues to increase. It is possible that the current eighth grade may tend to change the trend but it will be only a temporary respite because the class size from grade 7 down is larger. With an increasing tuition rate the one item "high school tuition" will become a larger portion of the school budget.

Personnel

There was but one change in teaching personnel. Miss Markarian resigned to further her education. Mrs. Evelyn Connor, a teacher of several years experience at Junior High School level and a graduate of Boston University was secured to fill the vacancy.

The fact that we have had so little change in the district teaching staff is an advantage to the pupils. Permanence of instructional staff makes possible a cohesive and continuous effort to produce a better educational product. The staff, too, becomes an integrated unit that generally shares in developing programs in all areas that are beneficial to the pupils.

The geographic location and the working conditions are factors of import in maintaining a relatively stable staff. Working conditions that contribute to high staff morale are an important factor in attracting experienced professional personnel. There were no changes in the supervisory and special services (music and health) staff. The loss of Mrs. Katherine Ross in the union office was a great one. She had served the union over a long period of years. It will be some time before a new staff can gain the backlog of experience that she had gained in her years of supervisory union work.

Basically one factor, enrollment, is the causative one for all problems that prevail in education. Finance, one of the major problems, is directly affected. Capital investment (new buildings and additions), equipment, supplies, books and increased demand for teachers are all due to increasing enrollments. The demand for teachers, as well as the increased cost of living, has resulted in improved salary status for teachers. The teachers of the state have as a result made some gains in the past few years. In the past five years the average salary of class room teachers has increased from 3310 to 4151. The average paid in Auburn for 1957-58 is approximately the average for 1955-56. It is lower than the current average of any of the New England States. It is because of this that the salary item of the budget shows quite an increase. Money expended to retain a good staff is a wise investment in terms of the education of children.

The most recent appraisal of the American educational system is the Conant report. This partial approach (Dr. Conant admits the sampling was not wide enough) to a scientific appraisal makes some very specific recommendations to improve the high school program. It is refreshing, however, to have such a sampling, more extensive than most, fail to find conditions that call for sweeping indictments of the American educational system. This type of indictment has been quite popular but Dr. Conant's approach singles out some praiseworthy accomplishments. His criticisms are directed as improvement and he offers solutions of the problems that he criticizes. This type of report will enable us to strengthen our weaknesses and to solidify our strengths.

The budget increase is approximately $2,000. One area "teachers' salaries" is responsible. In view of our position salary wise, such an increase is understandable.

The first full year in the building has justified the many hours of effort and work of school board and building committee. The progress of the children in areas, other than academic, is surprisingly good. Staff morale has improved. It is a satisfying experience to have shared in improving the educational opportunity for children. It is only possible because of a community wide interest in children.
